REMARKS

INTERVIEW SUMMARY

The applicant thanks the examiner for a most courteous and helpful interview granted their attorney on November 1, 2005. Prior to the interview the applicant faxed to the examiner a proposal for claim amendments and the Schaish II Declaration. During the interview, the applicant's attorney presented amendments to the claims and additional evidence in support thereof, which were believed to place this application in condition for allowance. The examiner indicated that there were too many issues raised by the applicant's proposal as well as a new Declaration for her to consider after final rejection, and advised to file an RCE to have everything considered. The following remarks reflect the arguments exchanged at the interview and an expansion thereof.
